

Air 1 is an uplifting source of communications in my community. We do not have any other stations like Air 1 in my radio listening area. It would be awful without them. I love no commercials!! I think Air 1's service is in the public interest because so many citizens are constantly reminded of the positive things God has provided in our community and around the world. I believe listening to Air 1 provides for a happier community!!